An invitation to remembrance

By WILLIAM L. TRIMYER
Invitation to Remembrance
Lesson for February 13, 1983
Bible Study Passages: Luke 22:1-20
Introduction

Jesus instituted the last supper so that we might recall with thankfulness and joy the gift of grace. We are invited to his table to celebrate his memory and his claim upon us.

Too often the Lord's Supper is tacked onto the end of a worship hour as an afterthought. While Paul admonishes us to "do it often," he certainly did not imply for it to become a mechanical repetition. Repetition can dull our knowledge and feeling of the significance of the Supper.

Celebrating the Lord's Supper is not something to take lightly. It is a supreme moment in the life of the church when we honor him who walked among us in the flesh and graced us with his love and loved us with his grace.

The Lord's Supper bids us to do three things: (1) to look back and remember the historical event of Christ's atoning work; (2) to honor the living Lord; (3) to look forward to the completion of God's purposes for our life.

Mounting Hostility [Luke 22:1-6]

Jesus entered Jerusalem prior to the celebration of the Jewish Passover feast, which commemorated Israel's deliverance from Egyptian domination. Jesus was arrested on the evening of the Passover. Many in the crowds who had gathered for the Passover feast focused their attention upon Jesus and his teachings. The Jewish priests and scribes were angered that such attention was focused on Jesus.

To get at Jesus the Jewish religious leaders bribed one of his disciples with the promise of silver if he would betray him. Judas accepted the offer and made arrangements for Jesus' arrest immediatley following the Passover.

Then Come The Day [Luke 22:7-13]

Jesus possessed intentionality for his ministry and life purposes. On the day of the Passover Jesus summoned his disciples (Peter and John) and asked them to prepare for his final supper with the disciples. This would be no ordinary supper, for Jesus would impart a tradition of lasting importance and memory.

The "upper room" became the scene and setting of a magnificent moment for dull hours and lengthening shadows. Jesus knew his "time was at hand" when the enemies of truth would raise the gauntlet of death. In this room the disciples would hear news that would shatter their hopes and raise their fears. They would experience the heavy hand of grief in anticipation of Jesus' announcement of his impending crucifixion and death. Any words of joy or hope from Jesus probably fell upon confused minds and numb hearts.

A Meal to Remember [Luke 22:14-20]

I suppose we all can remember special meals and table fellowship which stand out for us. We can easily recall special "feast" days when family and friends gathered to celebrate a special event or birthday. Thanksgiving meals are notoriously known for their abundance and how we leave the table feeling full.

The disciples may have left their table in the upper room feeling empty. While the food of herbs, unleavened bread, lamb, and wine may have sustained their physical appetites they may have departed empty-hearted. But they would remember that supper and that night as they would no other. That supper would forever remain imprinted upon their minds and heart as a memorable event to keep alive till the end of time. It is true that "when we eat of the bread and drink of the cup, we proclaim the Lord's death til he comes again." In remembrance of him we celebrate life and the hope of our future.

St. Anne's celebration set for next Shrove Tuesday

On Tuesday night, Feb. 15, from 6 to 7 p.m. pancakes, sausage and all the trimmings will be served in the Parish Hall at St. Anne's Episcopal Church on Oakleigh Avenue in Appomattox. The public is cordially invited to attend and the price is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children.

Shrove Tuesday is the day before Ash Wednesday which is the beginning of Lent. The word Shrove Tuesday is called Madi gras in French and comes from the word "shriving" or "shrift" originally meaning confession in preparation for the fasting period. In England it was at one time called "Pancake Tuesday" which survives as a social custom there as well as in this country. The people at St. Anne's welcome you to come and join them in celebrating this last evening before the beginning of the lenten season.

Leaf meeting slated

By TOM CONRAD

Flue-Cured Tobacco Stabilization's District Meeting - Flue Cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corporation, the grower-owned organization which administers the price support program for flue-cured leaf, will hold its 25th annual District Meeting for Virginia growers in South Hill, Virginia. Roy B. Davis, Jr. of South Boston, Director from Virginia, and Fred C. Bond, General Manager, jointly announced that the meeting will be held in the American Legion Building on Thursday, February 24, beginning at 2:00 p.m.

Davis noted that the 1982 season marks the first year of operations under the NO NET COST TOBACCO PROGRAM and he emphasized that growers should fully understand the impact of the new program. Davis stated that information dealing with all aspects of the NO NET COST TOBACCO PROGRAM will be presented and urged growers to make plans to attend the South Hill Meeting.

In addition to Stabilization's report, reports will be given by representatives of Tobacco Associates, Inc.; Tobacco Growers' Information Committee; and USDA's Tobacco Division, Agricultural Marketing Service; and other allied organizations and agencies. Ample time will be provided at the meeting for discussion.

A brief business session will be held to select Stabilization's Advisory Committee members from each of the flue-cured tobacco producing counties for the coming year.

Fire-Cured Tobacco Market Report - Light volume and declining quality marked the final week of sales for the 1982 crop of Virginia fire-cured tobacco. According to the Federal-State Market News Service, most grade prices were down and a little less tobacco was placed under loan. A clean-up sale is scheduled in Lynchburg on February 10, 1983.

Gross Sales follow:

Market	Week Ending February 3, 1983 Lbs.	Aver.	Season Through February 3, 1983 Lbs.	Aver.
Blackstone	308,784	$ 89,131,895	155	$111.57
Farmville	60,798	108,841,648,482		118.76
Lynchburg	92,232	94,101,993,809		121.03
Total		$ 93,766,366,439		$117.14

Average for the week of $93.70 was down $13.56 from the previous week. During the same number of days (31) last season, 5,211,671 gross pounds averaged $130.59 per hundred pounds.

Grade averages showed weakness in all groups except nondescript. Heavy leaf, thin leaf and lugs were down mainly $2 to $7 per hundred from previous levels. Non-descript grained $1 to $7 per hundred. Top average for the week was $169 paid for B3F 46 with N2 the lowest at $27 per hundred pounds.

Quality continued to slip during the final week of sales. Nondescript, no grade, and damaged tobacco combined, made up about 38 percent of all sales: Heavy leaf declined to 13 percent, thin leaf to 32 percent, and lugs to 17 percent. Only 9 percent of sales graded good quality or better with 21 percent fair and 32 percent low quality.

The Dark Tobacco Sales Cooperative received 27,508 pounds or 7.6 percent of final week sales. For the season, 437,984 pounds (8.9 percent) were placed under loan. Last season, the Cooperative received 275,000 pounds or 5.3 percent of gross sales.

Fire-cured sales on the Richmond sun-cured market this season totaled 4,213 pounds and averaged $35.01 per hundred.
